Parent Code of Conduct

The YMCA youth sports are based upon certain beliefs and philosophies – participation and everyone plays. The YMCA encourages a healthy spirit, mind, and body. The Y emphasizes fundamentals, fair play, cooperation and respect for officials, volunteers, teammates, and the other team. Our philosophy is simple – everyone plays, everyone wins!

- I will encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all participants, coaches, and officials.
- I will do my best to make this program fun for my child and I understand our goal is to emphasize fun over winning.
- I will ask my child to treat coaches, volunteers, officials, other teams, and teammates with respect regardless of race, age, sex, creed, or ability.
- I will recognize the importance of volunteer coaches and volunteer referees/officials. These volunteers are key in our youth sports programs!
- I will strive to be a role model for my child and other children in this program.
- I will communicate efficiently and respectfully with coaches, officials, and directors.
