SOCCER SKILLS ACADEMY CAMP

Soccer Skills Academy Camp at the Watertown Family YMCA is designed for athletes aged 5–12. This program aims to enhance players' technical skills in receiving, passing, and 1v1 attacking. Through focused attention on technical development, participants will not only learn essential soccer techniques but also enjoy a fun-filled environment dedicated to mastering soccer skills.

COACH OMAR SALAZAR

Omar Salazar brings a wealth of experience to the field as a decorated Afghanistan war veteran and seasoned adult soccer player/coach. With a background spanning high school, college, travel teams, and adult soccer, Omar's journey through the game has been rich and diverse.

Beyond his own playing career, Omar's extensive involvement in youth coaching across basketball, football, soccer, and soccer officiating has honed his ability to offer valuable insights, deep knowledge, and a skill-centric teaching approach across a broad spectrum of age groups. His multifaceted experience ensures a well-rounded and impactful learning environment for all.
